He shall take the usual oath of office, in the presence of the Councils, to be administered by one of the Judges of the Courts in said city, at twelve o'clock noon, on the Tuesday next succeeding his election: besides the powers otherwise conferred by law, he shall have the like power and authority as the Sheriff of the county of Philadelphia now has for the suppression of any riot, disturbance, and violation of law, and shall exercise the authority of making the requisition for the commanding officer of the military, in lieu of the Marshal of Police as now authorized by law, and of dismissing all police officers and watchmen, other than the Marshal of Police, for failure in the discharge of duty. If, after such reconsideration, two-thirds of that Council shall agree to pass the ordinance, it shall be sent, with the objections, to the other Council, by which likewise it shall be reconsidered, and if approved by two-thirds of that Council also, it shall be a binding ordinance. In such case the votes of both Councils shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting shall be entered on the journals. Every ordinance which the Mayor shall not so return within fifteen days, shall take effect as if it had been approved. The Mayor may approve ordinances in vacations of Councils, and may call special meetings of Councils to reconsider ordinances which he does not approve, on three days' notice to each member. The Mayor shall receive a salary to be fixed by Councils, which shall not be increased nor diminished during the term for which he shall have been elected. The Councils shall, in joint meeting, and by viva voce vote, appoint all the heads of departments not elective, and shall provide by ordinance for the appointments of clerks and officers, except the Mayor's clerk, who shall be appointed by the Mayor, and the Marshal's clerk, who shall be appointed by the Marshal—all of whom shall serve for such periods as may be fixed by ordinance, subject to dismissal by the appointing power or superior officer, as such ordinance may provide. He shall give bond to the city conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty, in such amount as the City Councils shall direct, and shall, before he enters upon his office, take and subscribe an oath or affirmation, honestly to keep and account for all public moneys and property entrusted to his care; and if such Treasurer shall knowingly violate said oath, he shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and on conviction thereof in the proper court, be sentenced to undergo solitary imprisonment at hard labor in the Eastern Penitentiary, for the term of not less than one nor more than ten years. Any vacancy in said office shall be filed by the City Councils, by viva voce vote in joint meeting. It shall be the duty of the Councils of the said city to provide, and said Treasurer to pay, on or before the 25th day of July, 1856, and in each year thereafter, into the treasury of the State, the amount of the State tax assessed within the limits of the said city, deducting all allowances made by law; and said Treasurer elected as aforesaid shall, before he enters upon the office, give bond, with sureties to be approved by the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia county, in such sum as they shall direct, conditioned for the safe keeping of and accounting
